2. Lateness is defined as not being at the practice or game and ready to begin at the time designated by the Head Coach.

REMINDER: On game days, if the boys play, the girls cheer and dance unless the game is OFFICIALLY canceled.
4. At least one parent or guardian or adult over 21 years of age MUST accompany the player to and from and be present during games. (THIS IS IMPORTANT IN CASE OF INJURY).

In the event that your child is injured during a practice or game, it is important that he or she gets the appropriate medical care immediately. The Brick Dragons South carries insurance for such incidents but it is also important that you understand and follow the process of medical claim submission. If an injury does occur you should let the head coach know immediately. He will give you an accident report to fill out. Please be advised that the Pop Warner insurance is always secondary to any other insurance coverage you may have. This means that you must submit all associated medical bills to your primary insurance carrier first. You must pay your claims up front, and wait for reimbursement from the insurance carrier. BDS is not responsible for any portion of the bills due to an injury, including those areas not covered by your insurance.

If there are still balances due after the primary insurance makes their payments, you must submit the balance due bills along with a fully completed claim form to the Brick Dragons South 2nd Vice President. Your Head Coach or Team Parent should be able to lead you to him/her or you can contact him/her via our website, www.brickdragonssouth.com. All claims must be submitted to our insurance company within 90 days of the injury so it's important that you follow-up on all bills in a timely matter.
